Mrs. Shilpa Dhananjay Ursal ... Appellant

Vs.

Shri Dhananjay Vasant Ursal ... Respondent

Mr. N.V. Gangal for the appellant.

Mr. N.P. Deshpande for the respondent.

CORAM : SMT. RANJANA DESAI &
SMT. V.K. TAHILRAMANI, JJ.

DATED : 5TH SEPTEMBER, 2006.

P.C.:-

The learned counsel appearing for the parties state that the parties have amicably settled the dispute involved in these appeals and in the cross-objection and they want to file consent terms. We are informed that the appellant and the respondent have now settled outside India. The consent terms are signed by their respective power of attorney holders. Both the appellant and the respondent have sent fax messages confirming that they have gone through the contents of the consent terms filed by their respective power of attorney holders and they consent to the same. The said fax messages are taken on record and marked “A” and “B”. The signature of the appellant appearing on the fax message has been identified by her advocate and the signature of the respondent appearing on the fax message has been identified by his power of attorney holder.

The learned counsel for the parties have tendered in this court the consent terms duly signed by the advocate for the appellant and the advocate for the respondent and Mr. Rajkumar V. Gaikwad, the power of attorney holder of the appellant - Ms. Shilpa Dhananay Ursal and by Mr. Vasantrao Ursal, the power of attorney holder of the respondent - Mr. Dhananjay Vasant Ursal. We note that both Mr. Rajkumar V. Gaikwad and Mr. Vasantrao Ursal are present in the court. Consent terms are taken on record and marked “X”. Decree in terms of consent terms. The appeals and the cross-objection as well as the civil application are disposed of in terms of the consent terms.
